

Paulina Żmuda

Biography:

Paulina Żmuda was born in Poland in 1989. In 2008 she graduated from the National Grażyna Bacewicz School of Music in Koszalin (Poland) and started studying in the Ignacy Paderewski Academy of Music in Poznań (Poland) on Harpsichord. In 2012 she graduated the Academy with honours and took entrance exams in the Vienna University of Music. Since then she studies under professor Gordon Murray.

As a soloist and ensemble player Paulina Żmuda has participated in numerous projects and masterclasses such as: Haendel Academy in Wrocław (Poland) in 2015, The 5th International Early Music Seminar in Tel-Aviv (Israel) in 2014, La Pellegrina Baroque Music in Bechyně (Czech Republic) in 2014, 3e Académie Européenne de Musique Ancienne de Vannes (France) in 2013, Piccola Accademia di Montisi (Italy) in 2013, 3rd Academic session "Harpsichord music in Vienna" in Warsaw (Poland) in 2013.

Paulina Żmuda has also participated in lesson led by: Aline Zylberajch, Nicholas Parle, Christophe Rousset, Elżbieta Chojnacka, Goska Isphording, Jorg Halubek, Rinaldo Alessandrini.